CASE CALLED FOR AN ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE HEARING AS TO VIOLATIONS OF SUPERVISED RELEASE.

Counsel for defendant informs that she has discussed with defendant the violations, as so mentioned by the probation officer, and that the same will not be contested. The defendant is also aware that the revocation hearing has already been set.

Therefore, due that the defendant is not challenging the violations as so mentioned by the probation officer, Magistrate Delgado-Colón finds probable cause for the supervised release term be revoked and a Report and Recommendation will be issued.

Revocation hearing is set for August 8, 2005 at 1:30 p.m. before Hon. José A. Fuste, Chief U.S. District Judge.
